

A reader's guide to The Transatlantic Economy 2020

The report

The Transatlantic Economy 2020 annual survey offers the most up-to-date set of facts and figures describing the deep economic integration binding Europe and the United States. It documents European-sourced jobs, trade and investment in each of the 50 US states, and US-sourced jobs, trade and investment in each member state of the European Union and other European countries.

For more information, please visit: amchameu.eu/transatlantic

10 things to look out for

- 1 How the COVID-19 outbreak is testing the global economy, amidst ongoing transatlantic economic and political uncertainty
page 2
- 2 What Brexit and the new EU-UK relationship mean for the transatlantic economy
page 8
- 3 Why investment drives the relationship between Europe and the US and trade alone is a misleading benchmark
page 14
- 4 How the digital economy is revolutionising transatlantic economic relations
page 30
- 5 How US-European commercial relations compare with those each has with China and other rising powers
page 53
- 6 How European and US companies are powering the transatlantic energy economy
page 59
- 7 Which US states benefit from the largest number of jobs created by European companies
page 55
- 8 Why the case for investing in Europe remains strong for US business
page 71
- 9 How jobs, investment and trade in the 50 US states are connected to Europe
page 79
- 10 How jobs, investment and trade in 30+ European countries are connected to the US
page 131

